EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Michael Sanzo on August 23, 2004.

Claims 29-43 (re-numbered as claims 1-15) are allowed.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Please amend claim 29 as follows:

Claim 29 (amended). A process for producing a branched chain L-amino acid, comprising:

a) cultivating a bacterium in a culture medium under conditions effective for production of said branched chain L-amino acid, wherein said bacterium has been engineered to overexpress brnE (SEQ ID NO:5) or brnF (SEQ ID NO:3); and

b) isolating said branched chain L-amino acid from the cultivated bacterium or culture medium of step a).

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant claims were restricted from the patented claims of the parent case (US 6,613,545) and therefore a double patenting rejection cannot be made. If two or more independent and distinct inventions are claimed in one application, the Director may require the application to be restricted to one of the inventions. If the other invention is made the subject of a divisional application which complies with the requirements of section 120 of this title it shall be entitled to the benefit of the filing date of the original application. A patent issuing on an application with respect to which a requirement for restriction under section has been made, or on an application filed as a result of such a requirement, shall not be used as a reference either in the Patent and Trademark Office or in the courts against a divisional application or against the original application or any patent issued on either of them, if the divisional application is filed before the issuance of the patent on the other application.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

4. Correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Group Art Unit 1645. Papers related to this application may be submitted to Group 1600 by facsimile transmission. Papers should be faxed to Group 1600 via the PTO Fax Center located in Remsen. The faxing of such papers must conform with the notice published in the Official Gazette, 1096 OG 30 (November 15, 1989).
